News from Magazine Convener

As you read this magazine you will note that there are some changes in the names of our Sponsors. Two of our Sponsors, both of who sponsored the magazines of the legacy congregations and continued with the change to Carnoustie Trinity, have decided not to continue. Kirk Session asked that letters of appreciation be sent to both these sponsors and this has been done. Our other sponsors for the past year, Selwood, MWT Blacksmith and MacDougall's have agreed to continue and we much appreciate their willingness to do so. The article for the latter has however been revised to reflect the wishes of the new owner of the business. You will see that we have some new sponsors of the magazine and we welcome Angus Soft Fruits, MFL Flooring, DWK Digital Office Equipment and Perfect Scotland as new sponsors.

To ensure we continue to have space for articles, reports and photographs we will increase the number of pages in the magazine. We are able to do this thanks to the additional income resulting from increasing our sponsors.

To help members know who their Elder is and to put a face to the new names they see in the magazine it has been decided to include a page in the magazine which will include a photograph and a short pen picture initially of members of the Kirk Session. In due course those others who have important jobs, but are not Members of Session will be included.

A page by page index to the contents of this magazine is below this article. I hope you enjoy reading this magazine

Musings from the Manse

This year on the 8th of May, we commemorated 80 years since VE Day, Victory in Europe. Leading up to VE Day, the TV news was full of people reminiscing about the street parties and how life was much simpler then and folks were much happier. Of course, that's not the real truth, because the 1940's were dominated by the atrocities of the Second World War, rationing, blackouts and bombing raids.

People tend to have selective memories. I even look back on my own childhood 30 or so years after the end of the war and remember it as an idyllic time. Long summer days when the sun shone, and it never rained. Life was good with picnics and trips to the park and playing out in the street until it was dark. Games of tig and rounders and 'kerby'.

But if I remember correctly, these were the days of miners' strikes and power cuts. high unemployment and rising inflations. Cities like Glasgow where I grew up had high levels of poverty and deprivation. Yet, people still remember these times with fondness – 'we were poor, but we were happy'. Were we really?

The Israelites similarly had selective memories. In the Old Testament book of Numbers, we see a people who are good at complaining. In the wilderness they get bored of the manna that God has provided for them and grumble about how good they had it back in Egypt and the food they enjoyed, 'the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic' instead of the boring old manna they have now. Amazingly, they have somehow forgotten that they were slaves back in Egypt. Even when they were almost at the Promised Land, they still thought that they might be better off in Egypt. They forgot that God had led them out of Egypt and fed them with manna but promised a land of milk and honey.

When we are going through tough times, we tend to look back at the past with rose tinted spectacles. Instead of looking back with longing, we should cling to God's guidance and provision for us here and now, and trust God to continue to look after us in the future. God promises us that the best is yet to come, 'No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him' (1 Corinthians 2: 9)

Blessings, Annette

More Musings from the Manse

I'm delighted to report that Gavin Berry concluded his training placement with me at the start of May, with a successful Final Appraisal of service in Carnoustie Church. Once Faith Action confirms that his other requirements have been met, the Presbytery of Perth will set a date for Gavin to be set apart as a Reader in the Church of Scotland. We look forward to the service in the next few weeks.

At the beginning of June we look forward to a visit from Amy-Louise Scott, who is currently completing her first year of training for full-time Ministry of Word and Sacrament. Amy- Louise is expected to be attached with me for 6 months over the winter. She is an Elder at Arbroath & District having been ordained in Arbroath: St Andrews a number of years ago.

At the time of preparing this article I am looking forward to attending the General Assembly as a Commissioner. It will be held during the week this magazine will be printed. I will be accompanied at the General Assembly by Arran Walker, one of our younger members, who will be attending as a Youth Representative.

It is anticipated there will be a number of challenges at this year's Assembly. The debate on Assisted dying is very timely with legislation being under discussion in Holyrood and Westminster. It is also anticipated that Financial concerns will have occupied much of our energies as we seek to get a grip with the challenges facing the Kirk in these times.

And what has been a very busy Spring and Easter period I am looking forward to holidays in June before the summer of change.

"Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth.

He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak" Isaiah 40: 28-29

Carnoustie Guild

Guild meetings on the second Wednesday of each month are now firmly established within Carnoustie Church on Dundee Street at 2pm.

On May 14th, there was a very happy gathering, led by Margaret Ramsay, when her Brechin minister Rev Adriaan Van Tonder inspired and entertained us with his story of deciding to accept the call to be a minister of word and sacrament in the Church of Scotland. We were delighted to also have the company of friends from Barry that afternoon.

From 121 we had news that the report to the General Assembly would be delivered by the new national Convener Christina at 11am on Wednesday 21st May. This will be available on the Church of Scotland website so as many as possible may view it.

Future meetings are on June 11th, talk and demonstration by Liz Law entitled "Building a House"

And July 9th the summer gathering, if weather permits, outside Madison's Café

Then on August 13th our own Irene Hoar will enlighten us on the project called "Operation Hope"

In September we are looking forward to celebrating Guild Week with a service of dedication.

We extend to one and all an open invitation to join with us on each or any of our meetings as, we, pray for blessings in all who take part.

Sandra Dow

F.O.G ( Friends of God) Squad

Thank you to all who attended our family Egg Rolling service. It was lovely to see all the wonderful eggs the children had decorated.

As I write this out FOG session is drawing to a close and we are looking forward to our annual Prize Giving Service on 1st June.

We wish you all a lovely Summer.

Alison Stuart

JAFFA - Jesus And Fun For All

In our recent meetings we have had in depth discussions on the orders implemented by a wide range of world leaders and governing bodies in the Bible, in history and in our world today and have studied the resultant consequences of their decisions and actions.

Our focus, supported by bible references, has been on identifying desirable, personal traits in leaders and recognition of negative traits and influences.

We also enjoyed helping to decorate the church for Easter.

We would love to welcome more secondary school pupils to join us at 11.00am in the Panbride Hall on the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Susan and Janie

Knitting for life

I was in the craft shop looking at the wool and saw dishcloth cotton – the real old fashioned kind. Immediately, I was successful as on our first knitting lesson was to knit a dishcloth and from then on, my mum, Granny and great aunts were continually supplied with dishcloths!

Back in the 60's both boys and girls were taught how to use a needle and thread. In the infants, this was made possible as we used Binka. I remember we all made a design using the plus, minus and multiplication symbols. This was followed by the girls learning how to knit.

After our dishcloths, we were introduced to the purl stitch and knitted a scarf. In Primary 6, we made ski hats and there began my downfall. We now had to follow (which to me was a mystery), a knitting pattern. Eventually I produced my slightly lopsided red ski hat with yellow zig zags and its pompom on top. This was very fashionable at the time and despite the odd wee hole, I wore it with pride. Primary 7 was a trial as we now had to use four needles and thin wool to knit socks. I have to admit my Granny helped me "turn the heel". Granny was always knitting socks and kept my dad and his golfing pals supplied for years.

When I tried sewing threading the needle took up half my lesson. Still using Binka but learning to oversew, we made needle cases. From there, we progressed to sewing a "dolly bag". This was to hold our gym shoes or "sannies" as we called them. All regulation black canvas plimsoles – no need to eye up a pal's trainers with envy back then. In Primary 7 we had to sew a stuffed animal made from felt. I chose a squirrel but attaching the tail was difficult and the squirrel arrived home with a large hole and stuffing oozing out.

Nowadays, I'm not much of a handwork person but I do crochet the odd blanket now and again. It made me think life can be similar to making a blanket. Sometimes it's plain and simple, sometimes it gets complicated. If that happens, I have to ask for help. Sometimes if I've made a bigger mistake, I have to go back, unravelling all my work as I go. The wool can get in a knot or even worse a tangle so patience and time are needed to sort out the mess. After a while, a well-worn blanket can get a bit frayed at the edges but with a little care and attention this can be resolved. The blanket can be enhanced with different colours of wool. They need to be woven in with some care and fastened with love.

As Christians, just like making a blanket, we have a pattern to follow. Sometimes we want to deviate from this pattern, or we choose not to follow the pattern. Following the pattern makes us uncomfortable especially as we can't see the finished product. However, we have to trust that God has a unique pattern for us and that His pattern is the best.

From Psalm 139 – "you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works . . ."

Finance Report

Plea from Finance Team

As you may have seen from the Money Matters leaflet, Carnoustie Trinity had a deficit in 2024 of £9,024 and we are projecting a deficit for 2025. The General Fund showed a deficit of over £4,500 for the three months to 31 March 2025 and there is an overspend on the Fabric Fund of over £6,400 so far. The Fabric Fund balance at 1 January 2025 was £17,686 and during the period to 31 March 2025 £24,000 was spent on repairs and maintenance of our buildings with £20,800 being spent on stonework repairs at Newton Panbride.

General Fund outgoings in April were £13,380 while our April monthly income, including Gift Aid was £12,218, meaning we have a shortfall of £1,162 for the month and unless we increase our income this could be replicated each month. A further £1,482 was spent on fabric in April meaning that the overspend for the Fabric Fund by the end of 30 April was £7,725.

Like us all, our Church faces rising bills for repairs, heat and light etc. but we can't continue to use past years' savings to meet running costs without trying to increase givings in order to meet our expenditure.

When we joined the Church, we all promised to give of our time, talents and money and while the Team do not expect members to do without essentials, we respectfully ask all members to reconsider their church givings, especially if they haven't been increased for some years. The Finance Team encourages members to give by Standing Order or through the FWO Scheme because regular giving by either of these methods helps the Church to budget, rather than receiving varying sums of money in the 'plate' on a Sunday when members attend.

If you are a taxpayer, please ask for a Gift Aid form as the church can reclaim 25p for every £ you give. Just ask any member of the team for Gift Aid and/or Standing Order forms.

Its not just money that is required to maintain our Church and keep our buildings wind and watertight and in good order. Paying for services currently contracted out to businesses and which may be done by volunteers, is a costly option. As mentioned earlier, when joining the church, we all promised to give of our time and use our talents to help the church. Your talent might be flower arranging, computer or admin skills, helping with the church cleaning, DIY, ground maintenance, delivering magazines, joining the Sunday welcome team etc. If possible, please volunteer to help maintain our church in some way.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) forms

As only 50% of these slips have been returned we have extended the date for returning the forms to 31 May 2025. If you don't hand back a signed GDPR form, the Church cannot retain your personal information such as name, address etc. Please complete the form and return it to the Treasurer, Pat Thornton, 9 Collier Street, Carnoustie. If you have lost your form please contact your elder or the Treasurer on 01241 852892.

We would like to thank those members who have returned their forms and those who, when returning the GDPR forms, also included a donation for church funds.

Pat Thornton; Audrey Duncan; John Gray; Stan Beattie; Pat Hay; Malcolm Sim

Needles & Pins

The ladies of our group have been busy over the winter and are now having a break over the summer months. We'll start back again in September. A big thank you to those who have donated wool and materials which have been recycled. Thanks too, to the ladies who have been knitting squares for knee blankets. We have some spare blankets if anyone would like one, hopefully not required till next winter!

Carnoustie Trinity Church putting competition Friday 20 June from 5.15pm onwards

We have arranged another putting competition for 20 June 2025 commencing at 5.15pm at Carnoustie putting green, to be followed by a BBQ and delicious desserts, tea & coffee in the manse garden. Please note a major change from our previous putting competitions. No, we haven't become a PGA event! Whilst Mike & Rhona will still be kindly providing the delicious desserts, tea and coffee in the garden, this time the price will include the burgers and rolls, with any profits from this 'get to know you event' going towards Carnoustie Church Building Project. You may bring additional refreshments yourself if you wish such as beer or wine.

As the putting green staff may have insufficient putters for everyone, please bring your own putter if you can.

Teams of up to four can enter and individual participants will be grouped into similar sized teams, so there's a place for everyone and all will be made welcome.

You can pick and mix your evening as you wish (see below) so, to assist with catering, please complete the undernoted booking slip (not forgetting a contact number) and return it to Pat Thornton pat.thornton206@outlook.com or Rhona Goss rhonagoss@blueyonder.co.uk by 14 June at the latest.

Carnoustie Church Building Project

The architect has been working to finalise the plans for the renovation project in Carnoustie church building and we can now see what the kitchen might look like. There are still decisions to be made and agreed so the project team met on 8th May to make sure that everything we need and want is going to be in the correct place. The plans will then be ready to put out to tender, at long last.

We were so pleased to be given £1000 from Haven in Carnoustie at the beginning of May and that money will go towards purchasing new chairs for the sanctuary. There were some sample chairs set up in the church recently and everyone took their turn to try them out and give opinions. It was a great opportunity to let people know in a practical way that the project is moving forward.

The next thing we have to do is start putting furniture that we are keeping into storage along with all the other odds and ends that have accumulated during the more than 100 years that the church has been open. Sorting everything out will take time, as well as willing volunteers, so if anyone can help, even for a few hours, please get in touch for details. We hope to get this work completed by the end of June at the latest so that when the renovations begin, the building will be ready.

Of course, the pews will have to be removed as well before the end of June so anyone interested in purchasing a pew, please get in touch. Some are already spoken for so if you are interested, let us know sooner rather than later. It would be great to know they will go to good homes. Some of the pews will be kept and the wood used to make items for display in the renovated building but more of that later!!

Fund raising is still going on so if anyone has any ideas to raise money, please get in touch, all ideas are welcome. Thanks to everyone for their continued support.

Irene (01241 859405)

Social & Fund Raising Committee

Our next fund raising event is for us to have a stall at the Gala day on July 5th.

We will be selling locally grown Strawberries, items from Needles and Pins, Bottle bags and some books.

Panbride Musical Memories

We are delighted that more people are coming along to our sessions on the last Wednesday of the month in the Panbride Hall from 2.15 – 3.30pm. It is a real privilege and joy for our caring team to see our members with dementia really enjoy singing along to familiar songs. It is also wonderful for their carers to see their loved ones so content and for them to feel supported by other carers and ourselves. We are also delighted to welcome folk who just love singing who come along to support the singing and enjoy the warm fellowship over tea/coffee and cakes which the sessions provide.

We are thrilled to have received £1000 from 'the Haven' which will allow us to replace equipment which has worked so hard over the past eleven years – at Panbride, Kinloch Care Centre, Willowbank Care Home and the recently added Brookfield Care Home.

Prayer from Life & Work

Author of Creation

Orderer of the night skies
Sustainer of the sun and moon
Bringer of life and Master of all living things
High King of the heavens

We bow our heads in worship and praise

Your artist hand paints the poppy and the pansy traces the lace on butterfly wings colours the blossom on bramble and broom.
Your care sustains the sparrow in her nest
the mouse and the mole, the hurcheon* and the hare.
You order our waters and seas, from the shoals of silver darlings
to the seal, the dolphin and the great whale.
The very air around us teems and trembles with life.

We lift our eyes to the hills in gratitude and wonder

In our towns we tend our parks and gardens
we dig and sow and plant, preen and prune and prepare.
In our fields our farmers rejoice in new life, in the greening of crops, the setting of fruits
and the promise of plenty in due time.
In our cities the morning sun wakes workers early lighting longer evenings and spectacular sunsets while children play and laugh and chatter in our streets.

We bless you for the beauty of being alive

In other places
Broom and bramble are no more broken hearts and homes lie in dust
There are no safe places for the sparrow to nest
no one to work the fields
The morning sun lights up destruction and evening sees only a scramble for safety while the laughter of children is only a memory.

We bow our heads in shame and pray for peace

Lord, bring the day to pass when all shall sit under their own vine and fig tree and no one shall make them afraid.

Amen.

And Finally

By the time you receive and read this magazine the Rev Rosie Frew will have taken over as Moderator of the Church of Scotland.

Involved in Church life since a young age . After graduating she was licensed by Presbytery of West Lothian. Her early days as a Minister were based in Fife Markinch, Parish, Glenrothes St Columba's and then Largo and Newburn. It was then that she became involved with Presbytery for the first time as Presbytery Clerk and subsequently became involved in the structures of the central church. She returned to parish ministry at Blowden and Melrose, The nomination to serve as Moderator came as a surprise. A visit to Perth Presbytery is one of the likely visits during her year as Moderator so we may be hearing more about that in the coming months..
